

HONORS
ARKANSAS

---

CREATION

It was created at the NCHC Boston meeting in 2018.

The first meeting took place on Friday, November 9, 2018 at the NCHC in Boston.

FIRST BUSINESS MEETING

---

The first business meeting took place at Havana, AR in 2019 at Mt. Magazine St. Park. Lynda Coon spearheaded the effort to bring all the honors colleges together.

They spoke about diversity, inclusion, and the reason to found the Honors College.

FIRST BUSINESS MEETING CONT.

---

- There were 19 total members including our beloved Dr. Kardas.
- Their plans were to:
  - Develop common honors databases, Submit sessions for NCHC Dallas, Develop social media sites, and consider and Honors Day at the Arkansas capital.

PHOTOS

---

---

NEW ORLEANS NCHC 2019

On Friday, November 8, 17 honors staffers met to plan the next steps for Honors Arkansas, they represented eight different colleges and universities.

The main business was an upcoming meeting in Little Rock with the governor's education specialists to discuss "brain drain," how honors invigorates the state's economy, and showcase honors graduates from Arkansas Honors Colleges.

NEW ORLEANS NCHC 2019 CONT.

---

- Another item was to explain how Honors Arkansas works as a national model for honors education, one that emphasizes collegiality, vision, and a corporate (e.g., statewide) nature.