

Characteristics of a College Student

Academic, social, and emotional/spiritual development

A college student faces many challenges»» in three main areas of life. The success of each student is determined by how he or she balances these areas.

Academics

- ▶ 1. Clearly determined course of study.
 - ▶ 2. Strong high school preparation.
 - ▶ 3. Well-developed study skills.
 - ▶ 4. Effective time management skills.
-

Social

- ▶ 1. Positive peer interaction.
 - ▶ 2. Involvement in appropriate social organizations that encourage academics.
 - ▶ 3. Social involvement with others in the same area of study.
 - ▶ 4. Service–giving back to the school and community.
-

Emotional/Spiritual

- ▶ 1. Family support and encouragement.
- 2. Stress: Able to handle stress in a positive way.
- ▶ 3. Responsibility: Able to stay focused without distractions.
- ▶ 4. Proper support group to help with emotional/spiritual development.

Survey: How do you measure?