NCHC's definition of Honors Education

NCHC sees Honors education as being learner-directed, so that the students learn in a way, as they say it, “tailored to fit the institution’s culture and mission”, and that the students and faculty would maintain a close community.

Modes of Honors Learning defined by NCHC

1. Learning in Depth (Research)
2. Multi- or interdisciplinary learning
3. Service Learning and Leadership
4. Experiential Learning
5. Learning Communities
